How do I register to vote?

- 1 Fill in the electoral registration form.
- 2 Make sure you sign the 'declaration'.
- 3 Return your completed form as soon as possible to the address shown below.

Electoral Registration Officer
Elections and Electoral Registration
Town Hall
Knowsley Street
Bury
BL9 0SW

Please do not return your form to The Electoral Commission. We cannot add you to the register.
Please note: the deadline for registering to vote can be up to two months before an election.

Who can register to vote?

- Anyone aged 16 or over (but you cannot vote until you are 18).
- British or Commonwealth citizens.
- Citizens of the Republic of Ireland or other European Union (EU) countries.

British citizens, Irish citizens and citizens of Commonwealth countries (including Cyprus and Malta) can vote at all elections.

Citizens of other EU countries can vote in local government elections but cannot vote in UK parliamentary elections. If you are an EU citizen and want to vote in European parliamentary elections, you must fill in a separate form. Contact your electoral registration office to ask for one.

What is the electoral register?

The electoral register is the list of everyone who is registered to vote. You must be on the register to vote in elections and referendums. You are not automatically registered, even if you pay Council Tax.

You can register to vote at any time. If you're not registered, for example, if you have moved home, you need to fill in a registration form.

Who has my personal details?

There are two versions of the register – the full version and the edited version. The full register is used for elections and referendums, preventing and detecting crime, and checking applications for credit. The edited register is available for general sale and can be used for commercial activities such as marketing.

Your details will appear on the full version of the register, but you can choose whether or not your details appear on the edited register.

More information

Please contact your electoral registration office if you have any questions about:

- registering to vote;
- postal voting; or
- proxy voting (someone else voting on your behalf).

In England and Wales, your electoral registration office is based at the local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office.
